OVERVIEW

Made for long lunches.

Face brickwork and layered hip rooflines give the Ashton Traditional a solid, settled look.

Inside, it's built for hosting. The island kitchen and walk-in pantry look straight across dining and family to a large covered verandah, so whoever's cooking stays part of the conversation. Three more bedrooms sit along their own passage, and when the guests head home, the front living room and main suite offer a quieter side of the house to retreat to.
